The Government and the Telegraph

San Francisco, January 30, 1869.

Hon. Frank McCoppin, Mayor of San Francisco, Dear Sir: Your communication of the 27th inst., requesting me to give in writing, my opinion in reference to several kinds of street pavement now in use in this city, is before me, and in reply I would say, that of the four I became a municipal officer of the city in 1856, and for many years thereafter, cobble-stone was the only kind of pavement used by the city in its corporate, and by individuals in their individual capacity. About five years ago the Nicolson pavement was introduced here by Mr. J. J. Robbins, assignee of the owner of the patent, and was received with much favor by our citizens. Very many portions of our streets are now paved with the Nicolson Pavement, so-called—still later—that is to say, about two years ago, the "Stow Foundation Pavement" was introduced here by the inventor, and many of our public streets have since been paved with that pavement.

A sufficient length of time has, I think, elapsed, to enable any person who has given the subject any attention, to form an intelligent opinion as to the merits of the respective wooden pavements—of course I leave the cobble-stones out of view entirely—and I have come to the conclusion, that, in many respects, such as adaptability to our streets and durability, the Stow is the superior pavement. But were the two pavements equal in every other respect, the facility with which the Stow can be taken up and relaid, whenever it becomes necessary to displace it for the purpose of laying down gas and water pipes, should, in my judgment, entitle it to preference and public favor.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
FRANK McCOPPIN,
Mayor of the City of San Francisco.

STOW FOUNDATION PAVEMENT
SAN FRANCISCO, January 30, 1869.

We, the undersigned, have carefully read the above letter from his Honor, Frank McCoppin, to H. F. Williams, Esq., upon the subject of street paving, and we fully indorse every word it contains.

The American Colleges and the American Public in the last New Englander. Noah Porter, while admitting that the present collegiate system is not faultless, enters earnestly into the defence of it, so far as its principal features are concerned. So much length and with such examination of the subject, he presents the arguments for the study of the ancient classics in colleges during the years of school and college, the superiority of language is better adapted than to these or other studies, and that the study of the various languages the Greek and Latin the highest method of serving its purpose. In this Prof. Porter of Cornell University agrees with others of the same party, he urges the necessity of these other languages to the mode because they serve to teach attention to the construction of language and thus contribute to give the student the understanding of his own language because, by teaching the intellectual processes they discipline it more thoroughly because they aid the student more largely in acquiring a knowledge of man, by introducing him to the peculiar life of the ancient world, because they prepare the mind more perfectly for the study of modern history, and because they more efficiently further the intellectual and æsthetic culture of the student. He next considers the usual objections presented against classical studies and shows how, even more forcibly, they apply against the mathematics, which the objectors themselves regard as essential to any true system of education. Turning from this point, Dr. Porter compares the classics with the various studies which, it is claimed, could be substituted for them, and endeavors to show that such a substitution could only be made at a great sacrifice to the cause of the highest education. The article closes with several suggestions as to improvements which might suitably be made in the methods of study in our colleges, and with urging the importance of allowing the student, at least in some part of his course, to read the classics with less reference to mere grammatical discipline and more for the purpose of appreciating their literary beauty, and of entering truly into their spirit.

BEN FRANKLIN AND THE PHILADELPHIA MERCHANTS.—When Benjamin Franklin was a printer in Philadelphia, it seems he published a newspaper. Among other things that received censure at his hands were certain modes of transacting business by the merchants of Philadelphia. He handled the knaves in such a manner as to arouse their wrath, and calling a meeting among themselves they wanted upon the sturdy printer, and demanded to know what he meant. "Here," said they, "we have been patronizing and supporting you, and this is our reward. You must change this mode of doing or we'll show you that the merchants are a power not to be trifled with. Without our patronage where would you stand?"

"Gentlemen of the Merchants' Committee," said the polite printer, "I am, as you see, very busy now, but call at my house this evening for dinner; I shall consider the matter over with you in a friendly manner."

The committee, congratulating themselves that old Ben was evidently frightened, came to the dinner at the hour named, but were surprised to find nothing on the table but mush—made from ill ground corn—and a large pitcher of milk. The Merchants' Committee not being used to coarse fare, could do nothing but watch the healthy printer while he made a hearty meal. Rising from the table he addressed the committee thus:

"Gentlemen, he that can live comfortably on such food can live without your patronage. I shall cease to attack those practices when you cease to practice them, and not before. Gentlemen, good night."

And for many a year Philadelphia merchants were better and far more honest, owing to this incident.

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!
IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.
IT CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been before the public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or risk to the patient if a cure is not effected.
It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:
B. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROBT. RAMSEY,
And others in that vicinity.
Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND, Feb 12, 1869

...ed at New York, on the 8th, I...
...ged at San Francisco, 54 buying, and 54½...
...56.

...York Market—Wheat quiet and steady at $2 5...
...Flour, dull ... at $5 15...
...Market—Prices ... last week.

San Francisco Market—Flour unchanged. Wheat ... market quiet at $1 50@1 57½ for ordinary ... $1 60 for fair to good; sales 1,000 sacks for shipping; 4,500 sacks good milling, $1 57½. Barley—... 2½ choice feed for Arizona, $2 20 ... for table at $2 15@2 20, and brewing at $2 20@2 30. Oats—500 sacks ... for California at $2, quotable at ... to range at $2 15@2 20. ... sacks Oregon, per Continental, sold on Saturday ... sale, quotable at $2 15@2 25.

Portland Market—There is no new feature this week ... and a slightly increased demand for sole by jobbers at ... ner quotations. Produce is arriving quite plentifully ... sales are full. Dealers continue to ship full car and ... to the full capacity of all the vessels trading here. ... our last report the steamer Active, for Victoria, ... brig Brewster and the bark Almatta, for San Francisco, have sailed with an aggregate produce freight of ... about 1,400 tons. The Ajax will sail this afternoon with ... from 800 to 900 tons.

Merchandise market quiet, though fully as much is ... doing as could be reasonably expected at this season of the year. The long continued low stage of water in the rivers has interfered considerably with business; but this impediment, so far as the Willamette is concerned, is now removed. The Columbia, however, remains so low as to prevent navigation above Celilo, and consequently no goods are moving in that direction. It is expected that the spring rise of the river will inaugurate a trade all the more brisk for the long continued torpor of the winter. We have no important changes to note in wholesale prices.

We clip the following from the San Francisco papers of dates from the 3d to the 6th inst., as affording some views of the markets not telegraphed:

"The volume of business transpiring in this city for the first month of the present year has been below the average.

Stocks of general merchandise are by no means excessive, and the prospects for the balance of the year are of a encouraging character."

The San Francisco Herald of the 6th says:

"During the week under review, receipts of grain and flour from the interior have been moderate, while from Oregon the Ajax arrived with a large cargo of flour, wheat, etc. The price of Oregon and other country brands of flour, as well as low grades of our own city mills, has ruled very low—in fact, out of proportion low as compared with the current rate of wheat. This has been a great inducement to exporters to buy liberally. The result has been free purchases for China, Manila, Mexico, etc., as stated elsewhere in these columns. The export demand for Australia has ceased, with no present expectation of any renewal thereof for a year to come. The great Britain wheat shipments continue with what appeared to be a recklessness difficult of solution, when we consider the low cable quotations of 11s 5d@11s 6d per cental for wheat in Liverpool, or $2 05@2 10 per bushel or same in New York, currency. We have advices from Boston by telegram of the arrival of the Herald of the Morning, hence, with a large cargo of wheat, flour etc. That was a sorry venture—a wild speculation for all parties in interest—and must, with many other like shipments made last summer to New York and elsewhere, result very disastrously to all concerned.

Oats continue to arrive freely from Oregon—the supply has far having exceeded all calculations. The northern crop was unprecedentedly large. Prices have thus far been very remunerative.

The wool market is bare of supplies, and must so continue for some time to come. The spring clip is, however, promising, and will, doubtless, be large and the fallow is in limited supply, and prices well sustained. Hides are in demand and wanted at rates long current. Lesther is very plenty and the market dull at nominal rates. The local demand is fair, but we suffer for want of a market abroad."

The Bulletin says:

"Oregon sugar-cured hams are again in market selling at 23c per lb; Cross' sugar-cured bacon ... ranging at 25c lb; Oregon bacon, 20c lb.

The Times of the 5th has the following quotations:

Bacon—California and Oregon Sides, 12½@13c. Hams—California sugar cured, 13½@14c; choice Oregon, 14@15c. Lard—City packed commands 12@12½c for large lots; 2½ and 5 lb tins are jobbing at 14 and 15c respectively. Beef and pork—California mess beef, $15 50; clear and extra clear pork, $21@22; mess do., $19@20; prime do., $13@14. Potatoes—The supply is much in excess of the demand, and holders are obliged to shade prices in order to effect sales. We quote: Rodegas and ... 65@70; Humboldts, 70@75c. Sweet potatoes are scarce at 3c. Tallow—Declined to 8c. Wool—Is nominal. Market quotations: Good wools, 17@18c; inferior and burry, 12½@13½c. Sale of one lot of 20,000 lbs pulled, for export to New York, private. Late advices from the Eastern market give prospect for a good demand for our spring clips at full figures. Sugar—As we stated in our report of the last inst., by a combination on the part of the ... prices are fully maintained. They have not only agreed to the scale of prices (published in our report of the last inst.) but they "guarantee" the price, that is, agree to refund to the purchaser any decline on the part of either of the Refineries covering the balance of purchase on hand at the time of such decline. And it is the manifest intention on the part of the California and the San Francisco and Pacific Sugar Refineries to maintain prices as long as possible. If the price is ... declines to 13c within 90 days, the decline will be ... by the liberal shipments of Eastern, now afloat, and not from any disposition on the part of the Refineries to be, by the price, and to undersell each other. Crushed can certainly, for cash, be bought for less than 17c. That is, the ... blished trade rate, cash commands a discount. Bran—We quote at $21@23. Middlings—In sacks, ... and at $27 50@30 for feed, and $33@35 for fine. Beans—Stocks are concentrated, and the market is firm. We quote as follows: Pea, 7½c; bayo, ½c; butter, 7½c; small white, 8½c; pink, 6c; red, 6½c. Jobbing rates ½@½c advance.

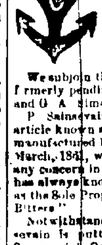
CHANCE OF NAME!



MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public, to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

MERCADO'S
Native California Wine
BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and G. A. Simon, defendant:

P. Sainsevain, being duly sworn, says, "That the article known as Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully, about the month of March, 1864, without the said Sainsevain Brothers having any concern in the manufactures thereof. The deponent has always known and considered said Mercado & Seully as the Sole Proprietors of the Sainsevain California Wine Bitters."

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. Sainsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS,

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar old yellow label, and see that the words, "MERCADO & SEULLY, SAN FRANCISCO," are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit imitations.

Depot—508 and 508 Jackson street, San Francisco.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS

OF

Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana

TELEGRAMS FROM

are published as full as in the California Journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

U S BRANCH MINT.—From the Mountaineer we learn the following in regard to the U S Branch Mint to be built at the Dalles: Col J F Moore, special agent, has placed the plans and specifications for the building in the hands of H A Hogue, superintendent, with full written instructions to proceed with the work on the same without delay. The survey of the lot will be made and the lines of the building located on Monday next, and immediately thereafter a force of men will be put to work excavating for the basement, which will be 64x91 feet, and seven in depth, and also grading the lot. During next month contracts will be made for the delivery of stone, brick, sand, lime, cement, lumber and such other material as will be required for the construction of the building. All preparations will be made so the masons' work will be commenced by the first of April, and prosecuted vigorously with the view and determination to get the walls of the main building up and under cover by the first of December next. The building will be a neat, substantial edifice, and an ornament to our city. It is of the real American style of architecture, commonly denominated modern, of beautiful proportions, and is to be erected of stone. The main walls of sand-stone, the quoins, water-table, doors, windows, sills, heads, jambs and all angles and projections of granite or hard stone, all of which is to be had in abundance, conveniently and economically, near by the city. The engine room will also be built of stone, and the smoke stack, 90 feet in heighth, of brick lined with the best of English fire brick.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In this Court, Judge Upton, presiding, the following proceedings were had yesterday:

The case of Michael Taylor vs Catharine Taylor, dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

Geo. W. Vaughn vs John Bonser, judgment by default for plaintiff for $762 02.

L Goldsmith & Co. vs. A. J. Daly & Co, dismissed on motion of plaintiffs without prejudice to another action.

Logan, Shattuck & Killin for plaintiffs in each case.

Fannie Barman vs Isaac Barman, referred to John Catlin, Esq, to take proofs. D. Freidenrich for plaintiff; Logan, Shattuck & Killin for defendant.

John A. Taylor vs Charles Talmage; judgment for plaintiff for $1,327 gold coin, by default; Logan, Shattuck & Killin for plaintiff.

Levi Nelson vs O. B. Kingsley, continued. Mitchell, Dolph & Smith for plaintiff.

J. F. Atkinson vs A. G. Walling; jury trial and verdict for defendant. Page & Thayer for plaintiff; Logan, Shattuck & Killin and J. C. Moreland for defendant.

The Grand Jury presented true bills of indictment against James Hayden and Edward Mullory for murder in the first degree, and Fred. C. Smith for larceny; and returned "not a true bill" in the cases of Jack Broschardt Anthony Wilkins and Frank Whitney.

Court adjourned to 9 o'clock to day.

FROM THE DALLES.—From the Mountaineer of yesterday we clip the following items of news about the Dalles:

A small party of prospectors left a few days ago for some place across the river, said to be about twelve miles distant, where, it is said, they have discovered placer gold diggings.....The brook trout have already commenced running up stream.....The weather during the forepart of last week was rather wintry, but yesterday the sun came out in all its glory and shone in really a gratifying manner. All nature has commenced indicating the approach of spring.....Some six or seven men have arrived at the Umatilla House, in this city, from Puget Sound, and have gone out amongst the cattle raisers for the purpose of buying cattle for that market.....The winter in Washington Territory, north of us, has been extremely mild and pleasant. Several persons with teams have lately crossed the mountains through the Snoqualomie Pass, and they report as being in good condition. Stock of which they are getting along finely in the Yakima valley.....Captain John Smith, of the Warm Springs Indian Agency, arrived on Tuesday evening last. He reports everything in a flourishing condition at the Reservation. The Indians raised a large amount of grain last season, and still have a surplus on hand.

EXAMINATION.—The exercises at the Academy were continued yesterday. In the forenoon, classes in Arithmetic, Philosophy, Grammar and Reading. In the afternoon, in Mental and Written Arithmetic and Geology. All the classes examined appeared thorough in their studies and exhibited excellent proficiency under the able instruction of Prof. Gatch and his efficient assistants. The exercises were interspersed with music, vocal and instrumental, and declamations. Among these [illegible] rendered in a manner to interest the audience more than the [illegible] of the "Dying Boy," by Lillie Glenn. Alice [illegible] sang, her articulation was good, her [illegible] of voice excellent and her gestures quite appropriate. Many others did excellently, and the entire programme was carried out with the utmost good order, on the part of [illegible] and pupils. The next term will commence on [illegible]day, the 22d inst., with the same corps of [illegible]. A [illegible] school than the Portland Academy [illegible] be [illegible] in our State, and it is receiving, as it [illegible], a very fair share of the public patronage.

WHEAT MARKET.—We quote the following from a circular issued by McCraken, Merrill & Co., of this city, as the nett returns of a cargo of wheat at the lowest rates quoted in the Liverpool market:

QUOTATIONS:
11s 4d per 100 lbs. at 49½d to the dollar is equal to	$2 87
Freight, $20, primage, $1, wharfage, 25c per ton, equal to	$1 06¼
Insurance estimating value of wheat here at $1 30 per 100 lbs	06
Commission at 5 per cent	13¾—1 62
	$1 50
Per 100 lbs
or 90 cents per bushel.

The Helen Angier, a vessel of 1,100 tons capacity, will load at this place for Liverpool, between the 1st and 10th of March. Messrs. M., M. & Co. will advance 40c per bushel—interest at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum.

FINANCIAL ITEMS.—The total amount of tax, city, county and State, paid and to be paid by Multnomah county for the present fiscal year is not far from $152,500.....Four hundred dollars were paid out of the city treasury during the year 1868, for killing dogs, yet "mongrels, curs, whelps and hounds, and cures of low degree," are quite numerous in all portions of town..... [illegible] paid into the city treasury during the year [illegible] $29,196 84.....The amount of the public school fund [illegible] in this city during the past year is $21,[illegible].....The sales of real estate in the city limits for the year [illegible] as shown by the records of Multnomah [illegible] to $143,846 00.....The improvements [illegible] for the coming year will probably exceed the sum of $250,000.....The total amount of loss by fire in 1868 was $76,949 37. Of this there was [illegible] $32,480.....The amount of treasure shipped from this city during 1868 by Wells, Fargo & Co. and Ladd & Tilton was $4 641,850 00.

FAILURE.—We are informed by one who was present at a meeting of Spiritualists at Milwaukie on Wednesday evening, that the man whom the spirits were accustomed to smite, was bound with a rope provided by the Committee to him, and not by the medium himself, and that all the medium's invocations for supernatural aid proved futile. After lying tied for several minutes the [illegible] gave up and announced that "he couldn't [illegible] those," and the rope had to be taken off his limbs by the materia' hands. Some of those present were dissatisfied with the result, and expressed themselves as "sold," demanding a return of their half dollar admission fee. This the performer generously offered to refund. Several [illegible] men and some older ones accepted the offer, and adjourned to a saloon across the way, where they purchased a keg of lager and indulged in a kind of spirits in which they had more faith.

PERSONAL.—Col. J C. Dow formerly editor of the Evening Commercial in this city, starts to-day for New York. Aside from his Democracy, so-called, the Col. is sound on general topics, and we wish him success in everything except his politics.

J. D. Biles, Esq., well known up and down the "fair Willamette" as one of the most obliging of steamboat men, starts to-day for the East on business connected with the construction of the Peoples' Transportation Company's Locks at Oregon City. J. D., may the gentle gales waft you safely hence, and bring you speedily back to the embraces of your many friends in the land of Web foot.

POST ROUTES.—Postal Agent Brooks informs us that Senator Corbett has introduced in Congress a bill to establish the following mail routes in Oregon:

From Humboldt Basin, via Amelia City, El Dorado City and Clarksville, to Express Ranch.

From Albany, via Lebanon, Sweet Home Valley, Camp Polk, Crooked river, Ochoco Valley, to Mountain House (one hundred and eighty-one miles.)

In Washington Territory From Steilacoom to Tacoma, sixteen miles.

RELIGIOUS.—We are requested to give notice that the Unitarian Church edifice is being enlarged, causing a temporary suspension of morning service, and the Sunday School. Parents will please give this notice to the children. Evening services are continued at Oro Fino Theatre. To-morrow evening the Rev. E. C. Anderson, of the Baptist Church, will, by invitation, occupy Mr. Elliot's pulpit in that place, and reply to a sermon of his upon "Retribution."

SHADE TREES.—The Common Council has provided for placing one hundred shade trees on and around the plaza in this city. We are glad this step has been taken and trust that such other measures will be undertaken to redeem that place from being the dreary looking waste it has appeared hitherto. At a moderate expenditure it may be made an ornament to Portland instead of the eye-sore to every passer-by it now is.

DIVINE SERVICES.—The Rev. Mr Driver, Agent of the American Bible Society, will preach at the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Sabbath morning and evening. The collection in the morning will be devoted to the Bible Society, and that in the evening to the church poor. Mr. D has the reputation of being one of the most forcible and eloquent ministers in Oregon.

POPULATION OF PORTLAND.—From the new Directory of Mr. McCormick, we learn that the present aggregate population of Portland is composed of, whites, males 3,762, females 3,140; colored, males 41, females, 21; Chinese, males 329, females 171. Total, 7,480, being an increase of 1,268 over the population of last year. The increase since 1865 is 3,043.

GRAND BALL.—The popular military company, Washington Guard, will give their Sixth Annual Ball on the 22d inst. The managers of these parties have hitherto succeeded in rendering them occasions of much pleasure to those participating, and the ball now in contemplation is certain to be a decided success.

BROKERS IN.—By Messrs Perkins, Quimby and others of the American Exchange, yesterday evening last, five deer at the pre-emption of the merchant. We learn that the gentlemen refused to tell how much powder they used in securing them before.

NEW CAPER.—D Wm Doughitt, an experienced lawyer and politician formerly of this State, advertises in the White Pine News his intention to start a newspaper either at Hamilton or Treasure City within three weeks from Jan 16th.

RETIRED.—Among the new haunts doing business on the Pacific [illegible] has been re-established in the [illegible] Hotel, on C [illegible] San Francisco. These gentlemen are the [illegible] dealers in meerschaum goods to [illegible] from the Kingdom of [illegible] to the coast, and are always attentive to patrons, [illegible] prices as low as possible. No other house in San Francisco [illegible] as C C Hastings & Co. Remember the number.

MINSTRELS.—Laf ut C Ward's Troupe of Minstrels will give a Matinee this afternoon and one of their amusing entertainments at Oro Fino to-night. Lovers of fun should [illegible] and [illegible] their [illegible] to [illegible] there by all means, as they will get [illegible] money's worth.

ATTENTION is called to the card of Messrs. Clarence & Richards, Civil Engineers & Deputy Surveyors, in another column. They are ready to do the most complete [illegible] on very reasonable terms. [illegible] chain will [illegible] on Mr Stratton's 114 Beale street, San Francisco, and examine their stock.

OBSERVATION.—It was remarked on the streets yesterday evening that the steamer Ajax, [illegible] the route between San Francisco and Portland as an opposition boat. What truth [illegible] the report we are unable to state.

SUITS COMMENCED.—Suits were commenced in the United States Court against parties in different parts of the State for violation of the Revenue laws. The cases so far are twenty one in number and very likely there will be more of them.

REMOVED.—The office of Lamson's Express has been removed to the American Exchange Hotel, Front street. I. P. W. Quimby, Esq., has been appointed agent in this city.

TO SAIL.—The Ajax will sail for San Francisco at 4 P M to-day. Quite a number of passengers are already booked for the trip.

LOVERS of the terpsichorean art should remember Prof. Cardinell's soiree to-night at the Armory of the Washington Guard.

CONCERT.—The Philharmonic Society will soon give one of their justly celebrated concerts. For particulars see our next issue.

DANCING ACADEMY.—Prof. Cardinell's classes are held every week-day evening, and on Saturday afternoon for children. Hall in Poppleton's Building, First street.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—Mr Fitzgerald has opened a Night School in the schoolhouse (up stairs) near the Catholic Church. For Terms—See the Teacher.

FOR COUGHS, COLDS AND THROAT DISORDERS, use Brown's Bronchial Troches, having proved their efficacy by a test of many years. The Troches are highly recommended and prescribed by Physicians and Surgeons in the army. Those exposed to sudden changes should always be supplied with "The Troches," as they give prompt relief.

Multnomah Lodge No. 13, I. O. G. T.—Holds Regular Meetings at 7½ o'clock on Saturday evenings of each week. All members in good standing are invited to attend. By order of W. C. T.

TEETH EXTRACTED

By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.

WILLIAM KOEHLER,

DENTIST.

OFFICE—Southwest corner Front and Marshall streets, opposite F. [illegible]'s Planing Mill and Hardware Store.

I am now making, amongst other improvements, my [illegible] ARTIFICIAL TEETH the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Coe's Patent, patented Dec. 31, 1867, the improvement of which consists in having the entire outer [illegible] surface with pure gold. This not only makes the plate [illegible] to the tissues, but [illegible] the gum a Vulcanite Plate is also [illegible] lighter than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can be made considerably thinner as Eighths, whereas the price is but little above that for common Plates. Call and see specimens.

N B—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr G W Coe's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out [illegible] by applying at the office.

N B—Strangers [illegible] that I constantly in crossing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials of the same can be given at the office.

rty Intolerance A Brief Review of the Past

We find much in the Democratic press out the intolerance of Radicalism." The tto of the Republican party, "Let us have ace," and the verdict of the people sus aining that motto, have not stopped but ther increased the frequency and virulence these accusations For an answer to all is, look back and see what the political con tion was ten years ago. Then, American arty politics was virtually a state of war It as held by one party that the institution s it was called—which they made their cor er stone and which gave them their cohesive ower was of such a nature that sentiments pposed to it could not be tolerated. They held that in the great section where this "in titution" existed no man must be permitted o live who disputed its right or policy, and hat such opinions were so dangerous to the ocial fabric that they justified society, or the majority who took upon themselves the ights of society, in resorting to the higher aw of self-preservation, and putting such nembers out of existence. The Northern portion of that party accepted these condi ions, and freely justified the execution of all Northern men in the South against whom this accusation was brought. And they also co-operated in extending this higher law by denouncing the whole party of the opposition by a name which, in the South, was held to be both charge and proof of the offense, and cause for immediate execution of capital penalty. Thus the citizens of one section of the country who went into the other did it greater peril to life and property than they would suffer to travel among the most savage tribes of Africa or the South Seas. This is that "Union as it was," which we often hear spoken of as the golden age of the Republic. No Northern man could procure toleration in the South except by renouncing all opinions opinions against the rightfulness of his Democratic "institution." By abandoning his manhood, by ostetatiously denouncing the sentiments prevalent in the section whence he came, and by assuming abject subserviency to the slave interest, he might, perhaps, be tolerated; and on these precarious terms a citizen of this free country might be allowed to live in the Southern half of it. But woe unto him if he announced himself an Abolitionist, or was even suspected of being one. In Northern cities, even, there was no security for the man who ventured to call in question the justice, rightfulness or policy of this inviolable "institution." Such men were hunted down, mobbed, and murdered. And so happy a political sin tion was this that the Democratic organs in the North worked zealously to keep it up. These facts are within everybody's knowledge. They are so well known that there is no necessity for alluding to them except to show what manner of men they are who accuse the Republicans of intolerance. If the case were reversed and the Democrats had put down a Republican rebellion, the country would have been covered with a forest of gibbets. No rebel Democrat has been punished; yet the party which ten years ago mobbed and murdered men who claimed simply the right of free speech, now denounce as intolerant the party which has punished no man for an unpunishable rebellion!

Stand Firm! Stand Firm!

Two or three days since a correspondent of the Oregonian, in criticising Hon. Wm. Strong's review of Judge Deady's opinion in the Rand-ll case, [illegible] the following language:

"It is the view [illegible] like that judicial decisions are the proper subject for criticism in the newspapers of the day, and we believe that it is contrary to good policy and the sound administration of justice, as well as fatal to the independence of the bench, to scatter broad-cast over the land the assertion that a judge has excluded competent testimony to the jury of a defendant, and that a jury of twelve impartial men has found an innocent man guilty."

A correspondent of the Herald takes issue with this doctrine. It is proper for us to say that while the language is correctly quoted, it is but a single sentence, and hardly does justice to our correspondent's idea. That idea was that it is contrary to good policy to appeal from the bench and from the verdict of a jury to popular opinion for the reversal of a judgment. But we cannot fully sanction this idea in the way our correspondent put it; in our judgment the case should have been stated with certain limitations and more precision. We think a judicial decision may be a proper subject for respectful and candid criticism; that any one who is personally disinterested may, in the interest of law and justice and for the vindication of fact, properly point out errors and mistakes in a judicial opinion and show by argument why the conclusions reached in such opinion are not well founded. This may be done by any impartial and candid critic; but we think it will be admitted that a person who has been an attorney in a case which has gone against him is not the person most likely to criticise impartially when reviewing the opinion of the judge and the verdict of the jury. In such a case it is certainly permissible, as our correspondent remarked, "to criticise the critic," and even to doubt the good taste and policy of his appeal to popular opinion. But we do not wish to impugn any one's motives in this case, or to do more than make a general remark to indicate our views on the question whether a judicial opinion is a proper subject for public criticism or not. As for this particular case, it has been so fully discussed that so long as it wears its present phase there is nothing more about it for us to say.

A Barren Profession.

The New York World has ascertained that a newspaper cannot afford to be tied down as a party "organ." It must be free to express its opinions, party or no party. The World has tried to bring the Democratic mind to accept a little common sense on sundry important questions. Thereupon it is savagely lashed by little papers of no influence, which live on fat this poor dying rate" as "organs" and nothing else; and occasionally it retorts with a spirit and sense which is commendable even in a Democratic journal. Take the following:

The World scorns the role of a party hack. As a business establishment it stands on the same footing as one of our great importing houses or tobacco manufactories. We are Democrats, as the heads of many such establishments are Democrats, because, being in a position to have independent opinions, Democratic principles commend themselves to our judgment. There is a place in the Democratic party for such papers as the Day Book, as there is in the Church for devout nuns who renounce intercourse with the world. But there is nevertheless a sphere of useful Christian activity for fruitful wives who bear children to be baptized. We duly venerate, though we do not affect to emulate, the purity of our political nuns, but from the necessity of their profession they are barren. The Day Book edifies some good Democrats, but it fails to bring Democratic doctrines to the notice of men who were not Democrats before.

Connecticut has a prodigy pianiste, who is four years old, and plays and sings admirably

Small Notes.

The Tidal Wave says that never since the discovery of Owyhee have the mines shown any better or yielded a better class of ore than at present. The amount of bullion assayed in Owyhee county (not including the Rising Star mill in Flint district) during the month of January was $115,803 39, coin valuation.

On the 23d January, one hundred and sixteen Republican members of the House signed a request to the Senate to make no more confirmations until after the 4th of March. Johnson has contrived to do a heavy business in making nominations, but the Senate has confirmed very few during this session.

Charges have been made in the Nevada Legislature against Governor Blasdell that he has abused the veto power, and at last advices, Feb 6 a formidable movement was afoot preparing for his impeachment. The Governor was said to be greatly alarmed at the storm he had raised.

The Mountaineer is informed by a letter from Boise City that Col. Hudnutt, chief engineer of the Idaho and Oregon branch railroad, says that the road will most probably pass up the Malheur river, cross the Blue Mountains through the low pass at the head of John Day river, and continue down on this side of the mountains through the rich and fertile valley of the John Day river to Dalles City, and thence down the Columbia.

It is a painful fact for the Democracy that they are compelled to go at once into fresh political campaigns, before they have rallied from their late defeat or had a chance to patch up any sort of platform to stand on. Elections are to take place in a few weeks in some of the States; and in other States the time is at hand for holding the regular Democratic Conventions They have nothing to go into the fight with except the resolutions of '68 and the declaration that the "war is a failure." These facts make their campaigning, in the present state of politics, uphill business.

The Anglo-rebel pirate Alabama, whose depredations have led to such extensive diplomatic correspondence between this country and Great Britain, was built by the Lairds at Birkenhead on the Mersey, sailed from Liverpool July 29th, 1862, to a small port near Holyhead, where she took in part of her fighting crew, which had been enlisted in Liverpool; thence she sailed to the Azores and there took in her armament, which was brought to her by two vessels from Liverpool Capt. Semmes took command at Porto Praya on the 19th of August, hoisting the Confederate flag in place of the British.

Special Commissioner Wells thus sets forth the prosperity which the country enjoys in spite of one great war, the most tremendous effort of national power known in history "Since the termination of the war more iron furnaces have been erected; more pig iron smelted; more bars rolled; more steel made more coal mined; more lumber sawed and hewed; more vessels built upon our inland waters; more houses constructed; more manufactories of different kinds started; more cotton spun and woven, more petroleum collected, refined and exported—than in any equal period in the history of the country, either before or during the war."

The Legislators of Nevada are represented as anxiously expecting the receipt of Senator Nye's resignation. It is believed at Carson that Nye will be either appointed Minister to Turkey or assigned a Cabinet portfolio. A correspondent at Carson writes the San Francisco Herald that C. E. DeLong and J. B. Winters appear to be equally confident of the succession, in case Senator Nye resigns; but there is a report—coming up, from a whisper to a loud talk—that William Sharon, agent of the Bank of California, at Virginia City, will enter the lists, if the expected vacancy occurs. Judge Baldwin and Judge Whitman are also mentioned as "possible candidates."

It is certain that the soil of our Southern States is for generations to come to furnish the great staple whose fleece is sought by the world. On that single staple we are to rely for the means of adjusting our trade balances with foreign nations. No other crop or product known, not even breadstuffs themselves, can serve the turn in commerce which cotton does. And that may be raised in fabulous quantities throughout the limits of the Gulf States, by throwing open the entire section to trade and immigration, and creating a powerful union of industrial interests in that entire region. Hence the need of a Southern Pacific Railroad to accelerate this great movement.

We were unable to be present on Tuesday evening last to hear Rev. Mr. Stoy's lecture on the "Empire of the Anglo-Saxons." But we have heard the lecture highly commended by very many persons. The Advocate says of it: "It was a very learned effort, reviewing the principles of historical interpretation, and their application to the three great ruling nations of the world—the Greek, the Roman and the Anglo-Saxon. The two former of these accomplished their mission in preparing the European races for the Christian status, as represented by the Anglo-Saxon The lecturer reviewed the rise, progress, present condition, and chief characteristics of the Anglo-Saxon race, showing it to be such as can never be surpassed by any other great race or power."

There is no such prize in the commercial world as the trade of Asia. We want to do the carrying trade for the world—to transport across our continent the silks, and other light, costly articles on their way from China and Japan to Europe. In a word, we want to command the trade of the East, for which the different European nations have been striving ever since the Middle Ages, and which has enriched successively every people obtaining it for the time It is within our grasp if we improve the facilities nature has given us But it is idle to expect that one single-track railway, and that perhaps liable to interruptions in winter, will give us the commanding position we ought to have Three transcontinental lines are needed, and the sooner the better.

We notice that the effort of the Senators from the Pacific coast to have the Chinese excluded from the exercise of the elective franchise by the suffrage amendment failed though the vote upon it was close. If the amendment passes the House in this shape it is doomed to certain defeat. The Pacific States will be a unit against it. The Republicans in other States who understand the "Chinese question" will also refuse to support the amendment The Republicans of Oregon will have nothing to do with it We do not want the Chinese to be invested with the elective franchise. The Democrats would vote them in crowds and herds, and it is as much as the country can do now to carry the weight of ignorant suffrage which is in that party. The amendment if submitted to the people in this shape, will hardly be heard of hereafter

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Feb 9.—The Senate assembled at 12 o'clock. Wilson submitted a minority report on the omnibus railroad bill, the principal features of which have been already telegraphed

Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported a joint resolution relative to bounties for colored soldiers, with an amendment providing that such persons who volunteered for three years and were honorably discharged, shall receive the same bounties as other soldiers

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Constitutional Amendment Several amendments were offered and lost.

Dixon renewed his motion for an amendment, requiring the ratification of the amendment by Convention, instead of legislature A discussion ensued in which Doolittle, Conness, Fessenden, Hendricks, Norton and Sumner participated.

Williams urged the necessity of excluding Chinamen from citizenship, lest they over-run the entire Pacific coast.

Corbett's amendment excluding Chinamen and Indians not taxed, was rejected after much further discussion. Wilson's amendment was adopted—31 to 21. It reads as follows: No discrimination shall be made among citizens of the United States in the exercise of the elective franchise, or in the right to hold office in any State, on account of color, race, nativity or creed.

The House took up the bill authorizing the building of a Military and Postal Railroad, from Washington to New York.

Kerr spoke in opposition to the bill. He thought Congress had no Constitutional power to take charge of railroads, and pointed out corruptions which would inevitably follow the establishing of such a precedent. The debate was continued McCarthy, Cullom and Blair supported the bill, Sitgraves, Haight, Phelps, Kelley and Twichell were against. When the debate closed Twichell moved to lay the bill on the table. Negatived—60 to 93. The bill was then ordered engrossed, and read a third time. On being engrossed it went to the Speaker's table.

The Speaker then announced that arrangements for admitting spectators to witness the counting of the Electoral vote would be made to-morrow

Spaulding reported the Senate amendment to the diplomatic appropriation bill with an amendment striking out the clause consolidating the Central American missions, non concurred in the other amendments, were variously disposed of.

Judd made a statement in reference to the business before the Banking Committee, and asked to have the floor next Saturday for the purpose of making reports. Unanimous consent was granted.

Pettis, from the Committee on Elections, reported in favor of Cleaver, the contestant from New Mexico.

Pike introduced a bill to compensate the officers and crew of the Kearsarge for the destruction of the pirate Alabama; referred.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the army appropriation bill.

Garfield spoke an hour to explain the amendment for the reduction of the army, by a plan of absorption, as opposed to a plan of direct muster out and consolidation of the quartermaster and commissary departments.

The Committee rose and the House took recess till the evening session for the consideration of the tax bill.

In the Senate Buckalew offered an amendment, providing that the constitutional amendment must be ratified by legislatures chosen after the passage of the resolution, was submitted The amendment was lost.

Dixon's amendment was lost.

Morton offered an amendment relative to the mode of choosing Presidential electors; Lost—27 to 29.

Sumner's amendment, an abstract of which was previously sent, was lost—9 to 46.

Warner's substitute was then voted down, and the amendment having been considered in Committee of the Whole, was reported to the Senate.

Morton renewed his amendment in regard to the manner of choosing Presidential electors, which was adopted—37 to 30

Anthony moved to recommit the amendment as amended to Judiciary Committee. Lost.

A motion to reconsider the vote adopting Morton's amendment was lost. The resolution was read a third time and passed—40 to 16. It reads as follows: No discrimination shall be made by the United States among citizens in their use of the elective franchise, or right to hold office in any State on account of race, color, property, nativity, education or creed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The Senate refused from the constitutional amendment all propositions excluding the Chinese from suffrage. Some of its opponents promise a remedy by a modification of the naturalisation laws.

There are before the Senate, awaiting its action, 188 civil nominations and 495 military, of which 340 are brevets. Only 11 of the civil nominations have been confirmed this session. Of the naval nominations, all were acted upon except eight

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—The Tribune's special says Eugene, the special envoy from St. Domingo, has informed members of the Committee on Foreign Relations that the statements made on the authority of Fabicus, confidential agent of Baez, that the debt of St Domingo is only half a million, is incorrect. He informs the committee that the debt is not below twelve millions, and will probably reach fourteen millions.

The same special says Wilson's amendment to the proposed Constitutional amendment contains a clause which the House rejected by a decided majority It thinks the whole matter will be sent to a Committee of Conference

The House committee for a revision of the laws have agreed on a bill relative to naturalization, which they will report as soon as possible It provides that hereafter all naturalizations shall be done in United States Courts Registers in Bankruptcy may take evidence, but not issue certificates All applicants for naturalization must give notice beforehand of their intention, and any citizen may appear before the court and state his objections to such naturalization. The papers may be issued at the end of four years and six months residence, but cannot be used till six months thereafter The purpose of the bill is to make naturalization a judicial process.

Constitutional Amendment Passed.

CHICAGO, Feb 9 The Senate passed the Constitutional amendment in its amended form—30 to 18

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—The Western and Southern Pacific Railroad Companies are treating with the owners of the South San Francisco Property for the right of way through that portion of the city. It appears to be the intention to deflect from the line of the San Jose Railroad, which virtually belongs to the southern and western folks somewhere north of the twelve-mile house, and to follow the southern water frontage by way of the Hunter's Point dock and Isly's Cave—perhaps to Mission Bay and Townsend streets, in which latter neighborhood are located the places of the tide lands, which the Southern and Western Pacific Railroad Companies may select at their option.

The steamer Sacramento arrived from Panama at noon to day with 1,200 tons of freight, mostly from New York, including 547 firkins butter.

Valparaiso dates just received by steamer report the destruction of considerable property by fire. Among the underwriters which suffered we note the Pacific Insurance Company of this city, for about forty thousand dollars.

The Bank of California sues Glidden & Williams. Plaintiff alleges that in June, 1867, it obtained judgment against Meader & Lolor for $5,000. It was believed at that time that Glidden & Williams were heavily in debt to the Meaders, but when cited to answer they denied owing anything to that firm. It is stated in the complaint that the two firms, Meader & Co. and Glidden & Williams, were engaged together in large mercantile and business transactions, and it is further alleged that on the 9th of May, 1867, Glidden & Williams were indebted to Meader & Co. sixty thousand dollars, and that at present they are indebted to the amount of eighty thousand, for which amount judgment is demanded by plaintiff

STOCKTON, Feb. 10.—It has rained incessantly since 7 o'clock last night, until 9 o'clock to-day Forty inches of rain fell. A messenger from the plains east of the city, this afternoon, reported the water in the small sloughs, nearly as high as ever before known. It is rumored that the bridge across Dry Creek, at Liberty, has been swept away. It still rains, and the weather-vane points southeast. No stage from Sacramento.

The trial of J. L Hawkins, charged with the murder at Woodbridge, is still occupying the attention of the District Court. It commenced on Friday, February 5th.

Some burglarious individuals broke into Capt. Webster's office last night, made their way into the vault, carried off an iron box and rifled it of its contents. The entrance to the office was made through the back door, near the slough. The vault has two doors of chilled iron, both of the locks of which were blown off with powder. Nothing was disturbed inside the vault except the box, which was taken across the slough to the rear of Dr Stockton's residence and broken open with a sledge hammer. The box contained but little of value, except some papers belonging to Cutting, which are no use to any one but the owner. The burglary is evidently the work of professionals

The sad tidings of the death of Dr. D. B Horr, of Tuolumne City were received in this city last evening. His death was caused at an early hour on Tuesday morning by an overdose of morphine. Whether taken intentionally or by accident is not stated.

STATE ITEMS.

Some of those who died at Jacksonville of small pox had not been vaccinated for many years, and the Sentinel says there is much doubt whether any of them had ever been vaccinated at all Not a single confluent case at that town has recovered

To the Democrat statement that a night watch has been employed at the State Treasury, the Sentinel responds Secretary May's precaution is a very wise one, and we commend him for it The eyes of the "rintous ring of irresponsible ruffians," and those of a few mercenary Republicans, are on the strong box of the State, and it is well to watch it

Says the Salem paper Inquiries are being made by parties in Benton county as to the whereabouts of a man named Kellogg, who formerly lived on Howell Prairie, in this county Fears are entertained that he has been murdered Kellogg was in Benton county last summer and fall, and during the forepart of November last, he started down to this county after money, since which time he has not been heard from He and Geo. Taylor farmed a piece of land in Benton county last year, in partnership

The Jacksonville Sentinel says Last week a poor miserable man whose appetite for drink is stronger than his reason, started on a spree He sold his furniture, bedding, clock, clothing everything literally stripping his family, who took refuge with some friends, and drank up the proceeds On Tuesday night he was verging on delirium tremens a homeless wanderer, with no place to lay his head, and as wretched a looking wreck of decency as eye ever saw. He was furnished some food and given temporary lodging in the station house Certainly a demon must possess the breast of any man who will thus act, and we can only say God pity him!

A Jacksonville paper relates the following instance of what it calls "successful practice" A short time since, one of our physicians attended the remains of a patient, who had been relieved by death to their last resting place The new made grave happened to make the last of a row of five, and while the coffin was being lowered down, the sexton inquired with a cynical expression "All these your's, Doc?" "No sir!" replied medicine "only three of them." "Well, you are ahead, anyhow," observed the sexton, as he commenced shoveling in dirt, "you've won the rub!" Medico turned thoughtfully away, probably thankful that there is no appeal from the coffin, and that the quicker a patient dies the less medicine he uses OPPOSITION LINE OF STEAMERS —A private letter from San Francisco says that a strong and well regulated Steamship company was formed in that city for the purpose of running a line of steamers regularly between San Francisco and Portland The steamers are known to be suitable for the Oregon trade, and are noted for good speed and splendid passenger accommodation. The people of Oregon will have an opportunity of showing which they are willing to patronize—good and staunch steamers at a reasonable price for freight and passage, as it will depend on the patronage these steamers will receive whether they will remain in our waters or not.
